CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL LANSING, MICHIGAN

FOREWORD

This 1936 Oracle is now yours. Keep it, treasure it, for it includes pictures and mementos of all the students of Central High for 1936. This edition has as its theme Michigan, her industries and varied activities. It represents the best of a year's efforts, and we hope you will receive as much enjoyment in reading it as we have had in preparing it.

APPRECIATION

In recognition of the splendid art work done for this Oracle Edition, we wish to express our appreciation to Miss Smith and her class members.

This year's Oracle also contains more snap-shot pages than any preceding publication of the Oracle. Nancy Ann Chandler and Harris Dean are to be highly praised for this work.

DEDICATION

To William J. Trachsel who has revealed the wonders of science to us, who has been, in his quiet manner, a champion of school athletics, who has been, in so many ways, the loyal servant of Central High School, to him the Senior Classes of June '36 and January '37 gratefuly dedicate this Oracle.

CLASS SONG

(Tune—Cheer for Old Amherst)

Let us sing of those good old high school days,
Of our friends and teachers dear.
Memories burn when for Central High we yearn
And recall old Central's cheer. Rah! Rah!
Class of '36, we will remember you
For your spirit and your fight,
For games and plays and all other gala days.
So hail to the red and white!

CHORUS:

Farewell, dear Central,
Pride of us all!
We've fought the battle!
We've heard the call!
You gave us your best, and
We'll do the rest, and
We'll march on to victory.

PLEDGE TO CENTRAL

LOIS FRAZIER

(To the Tune of "My Bonnie")

Old Central has rifts in her ceiling,
  Old Central has hills in her floor,
But were she a modern young building,
  We scarcely could love her the more.

CHORUS:

Central, Central,
  We love her traditions of field and hall;
Central, Central,
  Old Central is dear to us all.

No, Central has no auditorium,
  Her dark cafeteria's small;
But in our esteem and affection,
  She's still the best High school of all.

Our pledge be that Central may always
  Preserve her fair spirit and powers;
We give her our love and our efforts,
  For Central, God bless her, is ours!

DEBATE TEAM

This year the subject for debate was: "Resolved, that the several nations shall make government monopolies of the manufacture and sale of all combat instruments of war." The team began the season eager to repeat last year's performance by reaching the state elimination debates again. And it started off well, too, winning its first debate with the strong team from Royal Oak. Then again at a debate tournament held at Milford, the team lost only to Flint Northern and won from two Pontiac teams and from Centerline. Then came a mid-season slump. Muskegon, which had been defeated by Central twice in the last two years, won the second regular debate; and Lansing Eastern avenged her last year's defeat by winning the third debate. But the team came through in the end to win the last debate of the season from Ann Arbor. The regular team was John Speck, William Speck, and William Collinge, with two sophomore reserves, Mary Ellen O'Meara and Theodis Gay.

SCENES

ACT I—The Piazzetta, Venice
ACT II—The Pavilion in the Palace of Barataria

TIME—1750

An interval of three months is supposed to elapse between Act I and Act II.

SYNOPSIS

The plot of the opera concerns the efforts of the Duke of Plaza-Toro to find the rightful king of the island domain, Barataria. Casilda, the Duke's daughter, having been married by proxy to the king when both were infants, is rather upset by the marriage because she is in love with Luiz, her father's suite.

The exact identity of the king is more or less doubtful since he has been brought up in disguise as the son of a Venetian gondolier. To complicate matters, the gondolier has long since died and left his own son and the king without revealing which is which.

Don Alhambra offers the suggestion that Luiz go after his aged mother, Inez, who was nurse to the real king in his early childhood, in the hope that she can identify the legal heir to the throne. This she does but to everyone's surprise she reveals that he is none other than Luiz, for whom she had secretly substituted her own son before the king was sent to the gondolier.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION GREETINGS

This year the Lansing Central High School is sending another graduating class out into the world. It is 63 years since the first class of three left the high school to continue their education. From 1873 to 1885 the graduating classes were small, but since that time the classes have been growing larger each year.

At intervals between 1875 and 1898 the alumni banquets were held during commencement week, but it was the class of '07 who started the Alumni Association off with a constitution and by-laws. Since then an alumni banquet and reunion has been held nearly every year.

These banquets have afforded old friends and schoolmates an opportunity to meet once each year, and renew old friendships that have been neglected during the year. In 1908, 1913, and again in 1918, the Alumni Association published and distributed widely an Alumni Roster of all its members. This has been a great aid in locating many of the older graduates.

It was at the 1910 alumni banquet that the College Benefit Club was formed. This club was organized for the purpose of providing a means by which graduates may obtain loans to enable them to carry on their education. This fund has grown until now we are in a position to finance many worthy graduates of Central High School. This project is just one of many benefits that the Central High School Alumni has fostered.

The Association also aims to increase the interest and cooperation of its members in the progress and welfare of the high school.

We, the alumni of Central High School, want to extend to the graduating class of 1936, our sincere and very best wishes, and hope they will assist in carrying on the high aims and principles of the Alumni Association.

He's the big boss of athletics; the man who's developed the winning spirit in our school with his fiery coaching; the kind of a fellow who, with his ironic humor, can make sparks fly from a wooden legged Central athlete and spur him on to victory.

SUMMARY

Under the able coaching of John Middlesworth and his assistants, Deane Burnham and Morrie Green, the 1935 edition of the Big Reds completed a highly successful season.

Running up 222 points against their opponents' 31, they suffered but one setback—that in a hotly contested game with Ann Arbor by a score of 7-6.

In the annual city championship clash with Eastern the Reds battled the Quakers to a 6-6 tie. In this game, one packed with thrills, Central's score came in the last four minutes of the final stanza when "Jake" Speelman broke loose and, behind perfect blocking, galloped 85 yards for the tying marker.

Central's team this year was a well balanced one, and a strong, fast charging line combining with a light but fast backfield composed a team as powerful as any in its class.

L.C.H.S. BIG RED BALL

BASKETBALL '35 - '36

Although the Central's Big Reds this year did not rise to the heights of last year's team, they had, nevertheless, typical of most basketball teams coached by John Middlesworth, a very successful season.

Of a stiff thirteen game schedule the Reds lost but two games—one to Ann Arbor in an overtime struggle, and the other to East Lansing in a closely contested game.

Central again won the city championship by defeating Eastern twice and also shared 5-A League honors with Ann Arbor. In the regionals of the state tournament, the Big Reds bowled over their first two opponents with little difficulty only to be nosed out in the finals by Flint Northern, the team which went on to win the state championship.

The team this year, although not very tall, proved to be a scrappy combination and had a reputation everywhere as a hard team to beat.

The Little Reds met defeat in all their games during the last season. The team was composed entirely of sophomores. In all of the contests Coach Lantz substituted freely that his whole squad might gain real game experience. However, even in defeat, the papooses, led by Quarterback Wright, showed more spirit than teams of former years.

Our Sophomore Little Red team fared very well during the past season, winning nine of thirteen scheduled games. Promotion at mid-season removed some of the most valuable players from Mr. Lantz's outfit, but a willing bunch of workers continued the good record of the preceding semester. The Little Red team is almost entirely dependent upon the junior high schools for material, and thus for next season, Mr. Lantz can only hope for the best.

1935 SUMMARY

The track squad under the coaching of John Middlesworth went through three dual meets without meeting defeat. In the meet with Eastern, Central over-rode a hard running Quaker outfit with little difficulty. During this season Bill Carpenter established a new 100 yard dash record for Central, covering the distance in :10.1 seconds. Prospects are bright for a winning 1936 team.

1935 - 1936

Coach Gleason's group, composed largely of underclassmen, found scheduled competition a little too keen, and thus a poor season resulted. One of the main reasons for the team's losses was the lack of strength in the free-style events. Perhaps the outstanding individual was Arnold Jesson, a sophomore back-stroker, who placed Central's only first in the 5-A meet, and made the team's sole point in the state meet. Even though eclipsed by defeat, the team deserved a great deal of credit for their undaunted spirit.

The season was not unusually successful, and, yet, a measure of success could be seen in the faithful practicing of Coach Gleason's harriers every fall afternoon at Ferris Park. Central's only victory of four scheduled runs was over Eastern. In the 5-A League meet Central placed third. Clinton Ward paced the Red pack throughout the season.

GIRLS' POINT SYSTEM

The girl who wins a letter in athletics must show good sportsmanship, persistence, and ability in all athletic contests and in her regular gym work. The letters are awarded for points earned in various activities. These activities include dancing, swimming, hiking, teams, achievement and special tests, individual activities, leadership, and hygiene. In connection with these, intramural noon games are held, hikes are organized, and there are plunges and classes after school. A small letter C is awarded for 700 points and a large C for 1,400 points.

"IN BUSINESS FOR YOUR HEALTH"

I FEEL LIKE A FEATHER IN THE BREEZE

That is exactly the way I feel, with my American State Savings Account growing steadily. I work hard for my money—most everyone does—but there's a lot of fun in it when I know that I'm always at least one up on trouble and worry.

"Man of financial affairs." That's me all over and, folks, it's a grand and glorious feeling.

True greatness is measured by willingness to serve other people, and to forget self. Money, rank and power are of little value except the possessor be willing to use them for the uplifting of mankind.

Let your future years' activities and ambitions be always considered in the light of helpfulness to those about you. Service to others, whether in art, industry or insurance is the essential ingredient for honest, enduring success.

ONE MILLION GRADUATE THIS YEAR

Business can make a place for one out of every four of you if—you are business trained "a little above average."

Why not be that ONE—especially when you consider that you can prepare for such an opportunity in half the time and for less than half the expense required for other vocations.

L. B. U. has had two and two-thirds calls per graduate during the last year and the demand is steadily increasing. Age of the school, prestige, and training "a little above average" is the explanation.

IT HAS BEEN SAID—

Behind the glamour and mystery of great fortunes is the impressive lesson of small saving. These fortunes did not grow like Jack's bean-stalk, nor was there any magic about them. They represent systematic upbuilding founded on saving. This is all the secret there is about getting a competency or starting on the road to a fortune.

Study our plans of systematic thrift and home ownership.

THE VERDICT OF THE PUBLIC---

"It's America's finest Six"

ACCLAIMED America's finest Six. Reo's Big, Powerful, Beautiful Flying Cloud continues to win greater and greater public acceptances.

Definitely out of the commonplace in design, the 1936 Reo Flying Cloud offers the year's most advanced luxury and comfort features—at a price that makes it neither costly to buy nor to own.

You'll get a real thrill when you drive this fine, distinctive car. And you'll enjoy the solid satisfaction of knowing that Reo engineers have built this six to perform brilliantly and economically over a long term of years.

The margins of safety and driving ease that distinguish the new Flying Cloud are truly exceptional. And beneath its graceful exterior are those sturdy qualities you naturally seek in a quality car. There's a big, powerful engine—smooth, quiet, eagerly responsive. There's big-car weight and balance. And for your protection, you get an X-braced frame, hydraulic brakes and all-steel body. Reo is a quality six—the finest six in America by every modern standard. See it today—at the nearest Reo salesroom. Ask for a demonstration.

Few things bring so much enjoyment for so little, few investments pay such lavish dividends in comfort and contentment as the installation of modern automatic oil heat in your home. Truly, here is the magic of Aladdin's lamp for you to command—to reach out your hand and conjure up clean, healthful heating as easily as you dial your favorite radio program. MW offers three types of units to choose from—the MW Emancipator burner for your present heating plant, the MW-Arco Oil Furnace for heating by steam or hot water and the MW Weather Control Unit for modern air-conditioned heating. Ask your dealer for complete information. Be sure to ask him too about the MW automatic oil burning water heater.
